Directions : (Q.No. 51-55)

Read the following passage and answer the following questions:

Rabindranath Tagore was born in 1861, four years after the tragedy of the mutiny had threatened to British influence in India. At that time, modern western inventions had barely gained a foothold in India, railways were in their infancy and machinery was regarded with suspicion. The superstitions dread of losing the caste by crossing the ocean kept all but a few daring spirits at borne, so the Indian knew little of any land but his own. But the work of mission schools had begun to arouse a desire for education, and the first Indian universities had just been founded at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay.
